Safety

The Helston Flora Day Stewards take your safety very seriously, and ask that you note the following:

Lost Children or Vulnerable Adults: Helston can become very crowded on Flora Day. Please take very close care of children and vulnerable adults. It is suggested that they carry a contact number for their parent/guardian/assistant (a wristband is ideal for this purpose). Should you be unable to locate a missing child or vulnerable adult, please notify a Steward or member of the police.

Lost Children Collection Point: The Flora Day Association Booklet stall, adjacent to the Guildhall.

Uneven Surfaces and Kennels. Flora Day occurs throughout the length and breadth of Helston, which has many uneven surfaces, that could also become slippery when wet. Please take care, particularly on cobbled surfaces and near kerbs of pavements. In addition, Helston is famous for its street side “Kennels” - water channels running along the edges of several streets. Although the water is turned off for Flora Day, visitors are asked to be aware of their presence, particularly in Coinagehall and Church Streets.

Personal belongings. Please ensure you take care of your possessions at all times, and do not leave bags unattended. Any suspicious articles should be reported to a Steward or the police.

First Aid. St John's personnel are mobile throughout the Town, and ambulances are in attendance. Please contact the Flora Day Booklet stall (beside the Guildhall) for further information.

Dogs. Dog owners are advised that Helston can become very crowded, particularly in the centre during the Midday Dance, which might be frightening for dogs. Dogs should be kept on leads, and under close control at all times. Please respect people who might be nervous of dogs around them, and ensure that all dog poo is picked up and disposed of correctly.

Further Information

Please come to the Flora Day Association Booklet stall, by the Guildhall, for further information. This will also be the collection point of any lost children or lost property.
